

E-mail sent to supporters of Tim Congdon's bid for the leadership of the UK Independence Party, on 21st October 2010

This e-mail is sent to you because I have been informed - or have good reason to believe - that you are a supporter of my bid to become leader of UKIP. If you do not want to receive e-mails from me, perhaps you would let me know. The leadership campaign rules are intended to encourage discussion and debate, but also to prevent spamming.

Dear friends and supporters,

This is to let you know that you can now listen to the audio recording of Monday evening's tele-conference, in which Gerard Batten and I answered a variety of questions from the party membership.

The recording has not been edited in any way. I do not believe in "spin"!

The audio file is attached.

If the Congdon/Batten leadership bid is successful, we propose to make these tele-conferences a regular feature. We regard it as of the first importance that party members can make their concerns known to the party leadership; we are committed to establishing clear channels of communication between members and the leadership.

You are not only free to circulate this message more widely to other party members. You are positively requested to circulate it widely to as many party members as possible.

With best wishes

Tim Congdon
